Special Presentation by Captain Dan Berg

Captain Dan Berg is a native of Long Island and undoubtedly one of the most prolific shipwreck explorers in our area. He has written more than ten shipwreck and diving related books, hosted and produced the popular Dive Wreck Valley TV series, and has developed nationally approved specialty certification programs in shipwreck research and underwater cinematography. His photos, videos, and articles have been published on television news programs, documentaries, and in diving magazines. He is a recipient of the prestigious BTS Diver of the Year and SSI Platinum Pro 5000 awards. He owns and operates the 40' Wreck Valley custom built dive charter boat and can be found regularly exploring new and old shipwrecks in our local waters. Above all else, he is a North East Wreck Diver, a true explorer, and a pioneer in local shipwreck research and exploration. His excitement and steadfast commitment to local exploration are a testament to his love of shipwrecks, diving, and maritime history.

Don't miss out on this one time only presentation on shipwreck exploration!
