I have the qualifications and experience to dive wrecks in the following depth ranges:

- 0 to 80 Feet       80 to 150 Feet       150+ Feet

I am available to dive:     Saturdays     Sundays     Weekdays

Membership alone does not guarantee a member's qualifications for a dive. Prior to any and all diving activities, member credentials will be validated. All diving members will be required to verify their qualifications and experience for the depth and conditions of the dive to be undertaken. Boat captains may require similar verification, and may have different standards for their evaluation. All divers are responsible for their own dive plans, and all phases of diving operations. Wrecksploration is in no way responsible for the actions or safety of a diver during any part of any Wrecksploration sponsored activity. Diver safety is our concern, but is ultimately the individual divers' responsibility. Members are urged to dive well within the limits of their training and experience level.
